Andrejus: urgent, please do this now

From Minda. I am driving. Court deadline is 4pm today (Wed 21 Oct 2026).

1. Phone the court: 0300 123 5577

County Court at Lincoln. Claim number 019JE538 (MSEM UK Ltd against Fishbone Construction Ltd).

What to say

“I am Andrejus Prutkovas, a director of Fishbone Construction Ltd. We are the Defendant in claim 019JE538, MSEM UK Ltd against Fishbone Construction Ltd. Our other director, Mindaugas Gaudiesius, is travelling. We have no solicitor.

The order of 12 August says witness statements and documents are due by 4pm today. The Claimant sent us a very large package of documents which arrived on [DATE – ask Minda]. We cannot read it and answer it properly by 4pm.

We ask for a short extension, to 4pm on Wednesday 28 October. The hearing on 19 November would not change.”

Then ask

1. Where do I send the request today? Email address, post or by hand? Write it down.
2. Do we need a form or a fee?
3. Please note on the file that I asked by phone at this time.
4. What is your name?

2. Send the letter (next page)

Email it to the address the court gives you. Copy Egita@msemukltd.co.uk and mikheil@msemukltd.co.uk. Fill in the three yellow items: date the package arrived, how it came (post, courier, email), about how many pages. Call Minda hands-free on 07855 463292 for these. If she cannot say, write “on or about” and do not guess a date as fact.

3. Text Minda

The name of the person you spoke to, the time of the call, what they said, and the time you sent the letter. Keep the sent email.

If it goes wrong

- No answer: try every 5 minutes. Send the letter anyway.
- They say no: ask what we should do. Minda will file what is ready before 4pm.
- They tell you to use another address: write it down and use it.
- Do not agree to anything else or promise anything. Ask, write down, report.

Claim number 019JE538 – MSEM UK Ltd v Fishbone Construction Ltd
Defendant's application for a short extension of time – order of 12 August 2026, paragraph 2

Dear Sir or Madam,

Under paragraph 2 of the order of District Judge Armitage dated 12 August 2026 (notice dated 27 August 2026), the parties must send their witness statements and documents to the court and to each other by 4pm today, 21 October 2026.

The Defendant asks the court to extend that time, for the Defendant, to 4pm on Wednesday 28 October 2026.

The reason is that on [DATE] the Defendant received from the Claimant a very large package of documents [by post / courier / email], about [NUMBER] pages. The Defendant is a small company with no legal representative. Its directors have not been able to read and respond to the package before today's deadline. The Defendant needs to read it so that its witness statements and exhibits can answer what the Claimant relies on.

I telephoned the court at [TIME] today to ask about this. The Defendant's documents are being prepared and will be filed within the extra time.

The hearing on 19 November 2026 at 10:00 am is not affected, and the Claimant will not be harmed by a delay of one week. A copy of this letter has been sent to the Claimant.

If the court cannot decide this on the papers, I ask for a short telephone hearing. I can be reached on [YOUR MOBILE].

Yours faithfully,

Andrejus Prutkovas
Director, Fishbone Construction Ltd
for and on behalf of the Defendant
